

THOMASTON SAVINGS BANK

O R G A N I Z E D 1 8 7 4

Thomaston, Connecticut

January 4, 1951

CHARLES P. PENDLETON
EXECUTIVE VICE-PRESIDENT AND TREASURER

Mr. Robert Pingpank
81 Elm Street
Thomaston, Connecticut

Dear Mr. Pingpank:

This is to certify that you are the winner of the second prize in our essay contest on the subject "How Thrift Affects our Future".

Upon presentation of this letter to the bank, you will receive a ten dollar deposit to your savings bank account, or the same amount in cash.

Please show this letter to your parents and arrange with them as to how you should receive credit for the money. If the deposit is desired, please bring your passbook.

Very truly yours

THOMASTON SAVINGS BANK

Charles P. Pendleton

Executive Vice President

ANNOUNCE THRIFT ESSAY WINNERS

A first prize of a $20 savings bank account was awarded at a special junior high school assembly this afternoon to Jane Gil-land for her winning essay submitted in the Thomaston Savings bank contest, the subject of which was "How Thrift Affects Our Future."

A second prize of a $10 bank account was presented Robert Pingpank, and the third prize of $5 to John Vita. Raymond Cummings, assistant secretary of the bank made the presentations.

In addition to the cash prizes honorable mention was given to the entries of Frank Atwood, Joan Ciak, Hilda Johnson, John Mueller, Robert Monroe, Beatrice Bernatchez and Judy Calkins.

The judges were Mrs. Daniel P. Samson, Joseph Kaniewski and Donald Fuller.

PAID-8  PAID-3

JAN 5 '51

JAN -5 '51

Thomaston Sav. Bank
Thomaston, Conn.  1951
Thomaston, Conn.