

Thomaston High Student Council Holds Assembly

By WENDY BARR

The Thomaston High School Student Council recently presented an assembly program for the installation of the Student Council officers for this year and also for the introduction of a new school regulation adopted by the Student Council.

Herbert H. Wilber, adviser of the Student Council, gave a brief talk on the purpose of the organization. The oath of office was administered to the new officers by David W. Eaton, principal of Thomaston High School. The following officers were installed: Douglas Atwood, president; Wendy Barr, vice president; Linda Samson, secretary; and David Thulin, treasurer.

A system of one way traffic was instituted by the Student Council this year, to ease the congestion on the stairways in the school building. President Douglas Atwood introduced the program while Wendy Barr presented the problem and Carol Rayder explained the procedure. The system went into effect on Monday, Oct. 2.

The student body was invited at this assembly to attend meetings of the Student Council, which are held on the first and third Friday of each month.

The OWL staff has begun its activities this year with a recent dance. The editor of the yearbook this year is Douglas Atwood with Diane Pronovost and Linda Samson co - assistant editors. Chairmen of the subordinate staffs are as follows: Delphine Vezzani, Literary Staff; Raymond Cwick, Art Staff; Wendy Barr, Business Staff; and Philip Brown, Photographic Staff. Robert C. Pingpank is adviser of the yearbook staff.

The Future Teachers of America Club has staged a campaign to interest students in this organization. The Club was first organized last year under the advisorship of Miss Rosa Gangloff. Students interested will be screened before admittance in order to make this an effective organization.
