Two New Teachers Are Hired

THOMASTON (Special) — Two new teachers have been hired by Supt. of Schools Arthur F. Baker. They are, Eugene J. Renna of Waterbury who is teaching Grade 6 at Grove Street School and William V. Gray of West Brookfield, Mass., a mathematics teacher at the Junior High School.

Renna is a graduate of Crosby High School, Waterbury and earned a BS from the University of Connecticut.

Gray received a BA from Bowdoin College and a MA from Boston University. He has taught for 13 years.

A Senior Pilgrim Fellowship Leaders Conference will be held Saturday from 9:30 a.m. to 8 p.m. at Silver Lake.

Chicken Barbecue

A public chicken barbecue will be held Sunday at 1 p.m. at Beacon Grange Hall for the benefit of the Grange Building Fund. Harry Woolton is in charge.

Hundreds of town residents are planning to attend Terryville Fair which opens Saturday and will continue through Sunday. Many residents have made entries in the fair.

Future need of additional school buildings to accommodate the town's growing school population will be made by the Board of Education. The present Junior-Senior High School enrollment is 596 and the school seating capacity, 700. Another problem to be faced in the near future, it is pointed out, will be the addition of pupils coming from East Side School. This school, the town's oldest school building, is in the path of the relocated Rt. 8 which will be built near Naugatuck River.

New School

The board will also study the possibilities of a new junior high school building or elementary school.

Faculty assignments for the school here are: athletic coordinator, John Kennedy; varsity baseball, Raymond Ryan; junior high baseball, David Pike; boys' varsity basketball, Kennedy; junior varsity, Richard Nadolny; junior high school basketball, Raymond Gianamore; basketball, girls, Jacqueline Bierwirth; cheerleaders, Luella Wasick; dramatics, Elizabeth Nadeau.

Field hockey, girls, Jacqueline Bierwirth; soccer, varsity, Richard Nadolny; soccer, junior high, Paul Maniccolo; THS Association, Mildred Thomson; track, Joseph Lojko, and yearbook, Robert Pingpank.

The Northfield Women's Literary Club will meet Sept. 27 instead of Sept. 20 as originally planned. The theme of the program will be "movie night." Election of officers will also take place at the meeting which will be held at the home of Miss Eleanor Babbitt.

A business meeting of Thomaston Stag Club will be held Monday at 8 p.m. at the club rooms.

Trophy Serduck

Trophy Serduck, 80, of 290 Railroad St., died at his home Friday after a long illness. He was born April 15, 1882 in Kevi, Russia, a son of Trophy and Helen Serduck. He came to the U.S. about 50 years ago. He was self-employed for many years as a carpenter and was a member of St. Cyril's and Methodius Russian Orthodox Church, Terryville.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Fannie Romansciewicz Serduck and a son.

Nicholas Serduck and four grandchildren, all of Thomaston.

Funeral will be held Monday at 9:15 a.m. at the Lyon's Funeral Home, 46 High St. and at St. Cyril's and Methodius Church at 9:45 a.m. with the Rt. Rev. John Semenitzky, pastor, officiating. Burial will be in St. Cyril's Cemetery.

Parastas service will be held at the funeral home Sunday at 7:30 p.m. Friends may call at the funeral home Sunday from 3 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m.
