

Thomaston

Mathematics Workshop Is Planned for Parents

THOMASTON (Special) — A workshop for parents of students and prospective students who will be enrolled in special mathematics classes of Thomaston Schools, Grade 6 to 8 is now being planned it was announced by Dr. Marvin Yaffe, high school principal, Saturday.

The purpose of the workshops is to acquaint parents with some of the basic aspects of the new mathematics program. The classes are planned for March 12 and 26 in the High School building.

Several phases of mathematics will be discussed during the two sessions. Teachers will be Mrs. Mary Litke, Robert Pingpank, Raymond Ryan and Willis Gray of the school faculty and Dr. Yaffe.

Parents who are planning to attend the workshops are requested to fill out the questionnaires which they have received and have their children leave them at the high school office at once.

Library Week

Mrs. John Monahan Jr., chairman of the steering committee of the board of directors of the Thomaston Public Library has been appointed to make plans for National Library Week to be held April 21-27.

Dr. Elias Marsh will be the principal speaker Monday night at a meeting to be held by the Thomaston - Plymouth Mental Health Assn. at 8 p.m. in the High School. He has served the State of Connecticut for a number of years as the director of the division of community services for the Department of Mental Health.

His topic will concern "In Patient" psychiatric services in community hospitals. All interested adults are invited to attend the meeting.

A meeting of the vocation club of St. Thomas Church for boys of Grade 6 will be held Sunday at 2 p.m. at Montford Fathers Seminary, Litchfield.

Patrick McPhilemy

Patrick McPhilemy of 54 East Main St. died at Waterbury Hospital Saturday after a short illness.

He was born in Castleberg,

County Tyrone, Ireland, and came to Thomaston 45 years ago. He was a clockmaker with the E. Ingraham Co. of Bristol and later with Seth Thomas Clocks. He retired in 1953.

He leaves one sister, Miss Bridget McPhilemy of Castleberg, Ireland.

Funeral services will be held Monday at 8:30 a.m. at the Lyons Funeral Home, 46 High St., and at St. Thomas Church at 9. Burial will be in St. Thomas Cemetery.

Friends may call today from 3 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m.