

1955 DICK NOLAN (above right) I read Tabor Today (spring 2007) and welcomed the Headmaster's statement, "We believe in equal treatment of straight and gay students." Many religious heritages, schools and other settings are evolving toward inclusivity as exemplified by Tabor's current diversity policy. We hope that gay alumni of our era will demonstrate their enthusiasm for this cultural evolution by including Tabor among their annual and estate gifts.

Retired, Bob and I will celebrate our 52nd anniversary together in September, 2007. Other than elder health nuisances that prevent travel, we are going along quite well. We did have our annual reunion here with Frosty and Nancy Proctor—an event to which we always look forward. Our www.nolan-pingpank.com is visited internationally and has been useful as a "case study" in the Episcopal Church's own evolution! We're quite active here in the West Palm Beach region in church and community activities that promote social justice, especially human diversity.
